Note: crypto / day-trading bootcamps were omitted from the search terms — they operate online and rarely hold local Google Maps profiles with review histories, so they fail the scrape model. All other verticals from both target lists are represented above as ready-to-run search queries.

QUALIFICATION CRITERIA · ALL MUST PASS

- 15 or more total reviews
- Star rating between 3.0 and 4.9
- At least ONE of the following signals is true:
 - a Has a 1, 2, or 3 star review in the last 60 days with no owner response
 - b Has a 1, 2, or 3 star review in the 61–90 day window with no owner response
 - c Has 3 or more unanswered reviews in the last 60 days (any star rating)
 - d Last owner response was 45+ days ago
 - e Owner actively responds to reviews but skips the negative ones — has responded to 3+ positive reviews in the last 90 days while leaving negative reviews (1–3 star) unanswered

DEDUPLICATION

- Deduplicate by phone number across the entire dataset
- Keep one record per unique phone number
- When a business appears in multiple vertical searches, tag it with the first vertical that returned it

OUTPUT CSV FIELDS

FIELD	DESCRIPTION
business_name	Full business name as listed on Google Maps
phone	Primary phone number, E.164 format preferred
business_email	Email from Google profile or business website; leave blank if unavailable
city	City as listed on the business profile
state	Two-letter US state abbreviation
vertical	The search query vertical that returned this business qualifying_signal	Which criterion triggered the lead: a, b, c, d, or e
star_rating	Overall star rating (e.g., 4.2)
total_reviews	Total review count
bad_review_date	Date of the negative review that triggered the lead (ISO format)
bad_review_stars	Star rating of that review (1, 2, or 3)
bad_review_text	Full text of the negative review
bad_review_author	Reviewer's name as displayed on the review
days_since_last_response	Days since the owner last responded to any review
maps_url	Direct URL to the business's Google Maps profile

Note on business_email: Google Business Profiles do not always expose owner email publicly. Typical coverage is 40–60% of records when combining email listed on the profile with email scraped from the business's website. Records without email can still be used for cold calling.
